A-Z Glossary (Searchable Table)
Term	Definition	Cost-Saving Example	Actionable Tip
Bath & Brush	A full bath followed by a quick brush to remove loose fur.	Using a $10 slicker brush before bathing reduces shampoo use by 30%, saving ~$2/session.	Brush for 5 minutes before bathing to remove 70% of loose fur.
DIY Grooming	Using at-home products and tools instead of a professional groomer.	A $20 slicker brush and $5 pet-safe shampoo save $30+/session vs. salon rates.	Start with a $15 multi-blade clipper set (AliExpress) instead of a $100 machine.
Flea Dip	A cheaper alternative to shampooing for fleas (less effective but budget-friendly).	A 16oz flea dip costs $8 vs. $20 for a shampoo treatment—save $12/session.	Only use if your dog has light flea infestations; otherwise, consult a vet.
Slicker Brush	A must-have tool for removing loose fur before a bath.	A $15 wire slicker brush saves $10+/session vs. salon brushes.	Buy a 3-pack on Amazon for $12 instead of a single $20 brush.
Multi-Blade Clipper Set	A handheld clipper for precise trimming (e.g., around the face or legs).	A $25 multi-blade set saves $75+/session vs. salon clippers.	Use a $30 clipper with universal blade guards (AliExpress) instead of OEM.
Dilutable Shampoo Concentrate	A concentrated shampoo that mixes with water to save money.	A 16oz concentrate costs $10 vs. $20 for a full bottle—save $10+/session.	Mix 1 part concentrate to 4 parts water for a lather that lasts 2x longer.
Blade Guard	A replaceable guard for clippers to adjust cut length.	Universal guards cost $1.50/set vs. $8 OEM—save $6+/session.	Buy 10 guards at once to avoid frequent replacements.
Pet-Safe Ink	A non-toxic ink for marking fur length.

	A $5 bottle lasts 50+ uses vs. $10 for disposable guides—save $50+/year.
	Use a ruler and pen to mark instead of expensive clipping guides.
Clipping Guide	A reusable guide for consistent cut lengths.
	A $15 guide lasts 50+ uses vs. $10 disposable guides—save $50+/year.
	Use a ruler and pen to mark instead of expensive clipping guides.
Dry Shampoo	A powder to absorb oil without water, saving water and shampoo.
	A $10 tube lasts 20+ uses vs. $20 for a full bottle—save $10+/session.
	Apply to dry fur before brushing to reduce shampoo use by 50%.
Grooming Mat	A non-slip mat to protect floors during baths.
	A $20 mat lasts 5+ years vs. $50 for salon-grade—save $30+/year.
	Use a $15 rubber mat (Amazon) instead of a $50 salon mat.
Nail Grinder	A tool to file nails instead of trimming them.
	A $25 grinder saves $15+/session vs. salon nail trims.
	File nails weekly to avoid costly salon visits.
Ear Cleaner	A tool to clean ears without a vet visit.
	A $10 ear cleaner saves $30+/visit vs. vet fees.
	Clean ears monthly to prevent infections.
Fur Minimizer	A spray to reduce fur before a bath.
	A $15 spray saves $5+/session vs. salon fur removal.
	Spray on dry fur before brushing to remove 40% of loose fur.
Hair Clips	Clips to hold fur out of the way during grooming.
	A $5 pack lasts 20+ uses vs. $10 disposable clips—save $50+/year.
	Use reusable clips to avoid buying new ones.
Grooming Scissors	A set of scissors for trimming around the face or legs.
	A $15 set saves $20+/session vs. salon scissors.
	Use a $12 scissor set (AliExpress) instead of $30 OEM.
Hair Dryer	A handheld dryer for quick drying.
	A $25 dryer saves $10+/session vs. salon dryers.
	Use a $20 dryer (Amazon) instead of a $50 salon dryer.
Grooming Apron	A protective apron for grooming.
	A $15 apron lasts 5+ years vs. $30 disposable—save $15+/year.
	Use a $12 apron (Amazon) instead of $30 salon aprons.
Grooming Gloves	Gloves to protect hands during grooming.
	A $10 pair lasts 2+ years vs. $20 disposable—save $10+/year.
	Use $8 nitrile gloves (Amazon) instead of $20 disposable.
